Group of Institutions

Antiragging Policy

Introduction:

Regent Education and Research Foundation Group of Institutions is committed to providing a safe and conducive learning environment for all its students. We firmly believe in maintaining a campus that is free from any form of ragging, harassment, or bullying. This antiragging policy outlines our commitment to preventing ragging and ensuring the well-being of our students.

Definition of Ragging:

Ragging includes any act that causes physical or mental harm or fear, or adversely affects the health or safety of a student. It involves any practice that violates the dignity of an individual, creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment.

Policy Guidelines:

Strict Prohibition: Ragging in any form is strictly prohibited within the campus premises and any college-related events. Anyone found engaging in ragging activities will face severe disciplinary action.

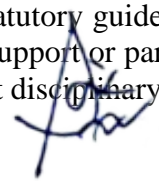

Display of Information: The antiragging policy will be prominently displayed on notice boards across the campus and other strategic locations. Contact details of the antiragging committee members will also be made available for easy reporting of incidents.

Zero Tolerance: Regent Education and Research Foundation Group of Institutions has a zero-tolerance policy towards ragging. Any act of ragging, whether physical, verbal, psychological, or cyber-related, will not be tolerated and will result in stringent consequences.

Antiragging Committee and Squad: The college will establish an antiragging committee and squad comprising faculty members, administrative staff, and student representatives. This committee will be responsible for addressing ragging complaints, conducting investigations, and recommending appropriate actions.

Helpline Numbers: Helpline numbers will be provided to students for reporting ragging incidents anonymously. Helpline numbers will be available 24/7 and will be closely monitored by the antiragging committee.

Student Pledge/Affidavit: All students, upon admission, will be required to sign an antiragging pledge, committing to not engage in or support any form of ragging. As per the statutory guidelines, students and parents are required to submit one affidavit/declaration, mentioning not to support or participate in any sort of ragging/ragging related issues. Violation of this pledge will result in strict disciplinary action.
