Title of the Practice: "Har Ghar Tiranga" Campaign (Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav)

"Har Ghar Tiranga" is a campaign initiated under the aegis of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav to encourage individuals to bring the Tiranga (Indian National Flag) home and hoist it, marking the 75th year of India's independence. The campaign aims to foster a personal connection with the national flag and symbolize the collective commitment to nation-building. It intends to invoke patriotism and promote awareness about the significance of the Indian National Flag. The NSS Cell of RERFGOI organized this event on 15th August 2022, where flag hoisting was practiced, and approximately 50 students participated.

Objectives of the practice:

The objectives of the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign are as follows:

- Encourage individuals to bring the Tiranga home and hoist it with pride.
- Establish a personal connection with the national flag and promote a sense of patriotism.
- Generate awareness about the history, significance, and protocol associated with the Indian National Flag.
- Instill a sense of responsibility and commitment to nation-building among the participants.
- Celebrate the 75th year of India's independence by involving citizens in a symbolic act of displaying the national flag at their homes.

The Context:

The "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign was launched as part of the nationwide celebration of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, marking the 75th anniversary of India's independence. The Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports initiated the event with the objective of inspiring Indians across the country to hoist or display the national flag at their workplaces and homes. The campaign aimed to invoke feelings of patriotism and foster a deeper connection with the Indian National Flag.

The Practice:

The "Har Ghar Tiranga" event organized by the NSS Cell of RERFGOI on 15th August 2022 witnessed the participation of approximately 50 students. The program included flag hoisting, where participants had the opportunity to practice the correct protocols associated with hoisting the national flag. The event was inaugurated by Dr. Rajorshi Bandopadhyay (Principal, RERF) and Mr. Subhankar Ghosh (Registrar, RERF), who emphasized the importance of the campaign and its significance in strengthening the bond between citizens and the national flag.

REGENT EDUCATION & RESEARCH FOUNDATION GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS

The success of the "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign can be measured by the active participation of approximately 50 students in the event. The campaign effectively created awareness and instilled a sense of patriotism among the participants. The act of hoisting the national flag at their homes served as a symbol of personal connection and commitment to nation-building. The event received positive feedback from the participants, who expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to engage in such a meaningful activity.

Problems encountered and resources required:

During the organization of the "Har Ghar Tiranga" event, logistical challenges such as arranging the flag hoisting ceremony and ensuring the availability of appropriate flags may have been encountered. However, the NSS Cell of RERFGOI proactively managed these challenges by procuring the necessary resources and coordinating the event effectively. Resources required for the event included the Indian National Flag, flagpoles, suitable locations for flag hoisting, and the presence of knowledgeable individuals to guide participants regarding flag protocols.

Conclusion:

The "Har Ghar Tiranga" campaign organized by the NSS Cell of RERFGOI successfully engaged students in practicing flag hoisting and promoting a sense of patriotism among participants. The campaign's objective of fostering a personal connection with the Indian National Flag and invoking.

Title of the Practice: World Environment Day Celebration

World Environment Day, observed on 5th June, is the United Nations' primary platform for promoting awareness and action towards environmental protection. Since its inception in 1973, it has played a crucial role in raising awareness about various environmental issues such as marine pollution, overpopulation, global warming, sustainable development, and wildlife crime. World Environment Day serves as a global platform for public outreach, with participation from numerous countries annually. It provides an opportunity for businesses, non-governmental organizations, communities, governments, and celebrities to advocate for environmental causes and promote green practices.

Objectives of the practice:

The objectives of the World Environment Day celebration by the NSS unit of RERFGOI in collaboration with the BSH department were as follows:

- Raise awareness about sustainable development and environmental conservation among students and volunteers.
- Provide a platform for knowledge sharing and learning from experts in the field.
- Promote the importance of environmental protection and the role of individuals and communities in preserving the environment.
- Encourage participants to take proactive actions towards creating a sustainable and eco-friendly future.
- Foster a sense of responsibility and commitment to environmental stewardship.

The Context

World Environment Day serves as a significant global event aimed at generating awareness and action for environmental conservation. The celebration of this day provides an opportunity to highlight the importance of environmental sustainability and mobilize individuals and communities towards adopting environmentally friendly practices. The NSS unit of RERFGOI, in collaboration with the BSH department, organized a webinar on 'Sustainable Development and Environment' to mark this occasion.

The Practice:

The NSS unit of RERFGOI, in collaboration with the BSH department, conducted a webinar on 'Sustainable Development and Environment' to commemorate World Environment Day. The webinar was held on 5th June at 9:30 a.m. and took place on the Google Meet platform. The event commenced with an inauguration by Mr. Subhankar Ghosh (Registrar, RERF) and Mr. Swadhin Chakrabarty (Programme Officer, NSS Unit, RERF). The key speaker for the webinar was Dr. Indranil Ghosh (Associate Professor, Netaji Subhas Engineering College), who delivered an enriching speech on sustainable development and environmental conservation.

Evidence of Success:

The webinar witnessed active participation from approximately 60 students and 10 NSS volunteers. The audience engaged in the session, gaining valuable insights into sustainable development and environmental issues. The keynote speech delivered by Dr. Indranil Ghosh proved to be highly informative and thought-provoking, stimulating discussions among the participants. The event successfully achieved its objective of raising awareness and promoting understanding about sustainable development and the importance of environmental conservation.

Problems encountered :

During the organization of the webinar for World Environment Day, a few challenges were encountered, including:

- Technical difficulties or connectivity issues that may have affected the smooth conduct of the webinar.
- Ensuring effective coordination and communication with the participants before and during the event.
- Availability of suitable resources and materials for promoting sustainable development and environmental conservation.

Resources Required:

To successfully organize the webinar on World Environment Day, the following resources were required:

- Access to a reliable internet connection and the necessary technological infrastructure to conduct the webinar.
- Collaboration and support from the BSH department and NSS unit of RERFGOI.
- Expertise and availability of Dr. Indranil Ghosh as the keynote speaker.
- Adequate promotional materials and resources to generate awareness and encourage participation.

Conclusion:

The celebration of World Environment Day through the webinar on 'Sustainable Development and Environment' by the NSS unit of RERFGOI in collaboration with the BSH department proved to be a successful and impactful initiative. The event effectively raised awareness about sustainable development, environmental conservation, and the importance of individual and collective action. Despite the challenges faced, the program witnessed active participation, fostering a sense of responsibility towards environmental stewardship among the students and volunteers.

Title of the Practice: International Yoga Day

International Yoga Day is celebrated worldwide on 21st June every year to promote the importance of yoga in maintaining a healthy body and mind. Yoga is an ancient practice that originated in India and has gained global recognition for its numerous physical and mental benefits. The event aims to raise awareness about the transformative power of yoga and encourage people to incorporate it into their daily lives.

Objectives of the practice:

The objectives of celebrating International Yoga Day are as follows:

- To spread awareness about the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of practicing yoga.
- To encourage individuals to adopt a healthy lifestyle through the regular practice of yoga.
- To promote global peace, harmony, and unity through the practice of yoga.
- To emphasize the importance of maintaining overall well-being and inner peace.
- To highlight the contribution of yoga in achieving a balanced and sustainable development.

The Context:

On 21st June 2023, International Yoga Day was celebrated online, bringing together 88 participants from various locations. The event aimed to provide a platform for individuals to engage in yoga practices and learn from esteemed yoga expert Tanumoy Das. Tanumoy Das is a highly accomplished yoga practitioner and has received prestigious awards like the Yoga Ratnamani Award and the Yoga Ratna Award. He has also achieved the title of All India Yoga Champion and serves as a yoga judge at the district and state levels. Tanumoy Das is associated with the Krishnagar Swami Vivekananda Yoga Centre and is affiliated with organizations such as the Nadia District Body Building & Yoga Culture Association, Sarabharatiya Sangeet-o-Sanskriti Parishad, and the Indian Yoga Association.

The Practice:

The online celebration of International Yoga Day provided participants with the opportunity to engage in various yoga practices led by Tanumoy Das. The session included a combination of asanas (physical postures), pranayama (breathing exercises), and meditation techniques. Tanumoy Das shared his expertise, guiding participants through the practices and emphasizing the correct alignment, breathing techniques, and mindfulness. The session aimed to create a serene and inclusive environment where individuals could experience the holistic benefits of yoga and deepen their understanding of its principles.

Evidence of Success:

The success of the online International Yoga Day celebration can be measured through the active participation of 88 individuals from different locations. The positive feedback received from the participants reflects their satisfaction and the value they derived from the session. Participants expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to learn from Tanumoy Das and appreciated his expertise in guiding them through the yoga practices. The event successfully fulfilled its objective of promoting the benefits of yoga and inspiring individuals to incorporate it into their daily lives.

Problems encountered and resources required:

Despite the online format, technical issues such as internet connectivity problems or audio/video disruptions could have been encountered during the event. However, proactive measures were taken to ensure smooth communication and minimize disruptions. Adequate resources such as a stable internet connection, audiovisual equipment, and a suitable platform for hosting the online session were required to facilitate the event's success.

Conclusion:

The celebration of International Yoga Day on 21st June 2023 provided a platform for individuals to engage in yoga practices and learn from the expertise of Tanumoy Das, an acclaimed yoga practitioner. The online event witnessed active participation from 88 individuals, promoting the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of yoga. The success of the event demonstrated the positive impact of yoga on overall well-being and highlighted the importance of incorporating it into our daily lives. International Yoga Day continues to inspire individuals worldwide to embrace the transformative power of yoga for a healthier and more balanced life.

Title of the Practice: International Yoga Day

International Yoga Day is celebrated worldwide on 21st June every year to promote the importance of yoga in maintaining a healthy body and mind. Yoga is an ancient practice that originated in India and has gained global recognition for its numerous physical and mental benefits. The event aims to raise awareness about the transformative power of yoga and encourage people to incorporate it into their daily lives.

Objectives of the practice:

The objectives of celebrating International Yoga Day are as follows:

- To spread awareness about the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of practicing yoga.
- To encourage individuals to adopt a healthy lifestyle through the regular practice of yoga.
- To promote global peace, harmony, and unity through the practice of yoga.
- To emphasize the importance of maintaining overall well-being and inner peace.
- To highlight the contribution of yoga in achieving a balanced and sustainable development.

The Context:

On 21st June 2022, International Yoga Day was celebrated online, bringing together 90 participants from various locations. The event aimed to provide a platform for individuals to engage in yoga practices and learn from esteemed yoga expert Tanumoy Das. Tanumoy Das is a highly accomplished yoga practitioner and has received prestigious awards like the Yoga Ratnamani Award and the Yoga Ratna Award. He has also achieved the title of All India Yoga Champion and serves as a yoga judge at the district and state levels. Tanumoy Das is associated with the Krishnagar Swami Vivekananda Yoga Centre and is affiliated with organizations such as the Nadia District Body Building & Yoga Culture Association, Sarbabharatiya Sangeet-o-Sanskriti Parishad, and the Indian Yoga Association.

The Practice:

The online celebration of International Yoga Day provided participants with the opportunity to engage in various yoga practices led by Tanumoy Das. The session included a combination of asanas (physical postures), pranayama (breathing exercises), and meditation techniques. Tanumoy Das shared his expertise, guiding participants through the practices and emphasizing the correct alignment, breathing techniques, and mindfulness. The session aimed to create a serene and inclusive environment where individuals could experience the holistic benefits of yoga and deepen their understanding of its principles.

Evidence of Success:

The success of the online International Yoga Day celebration can be measured through the active participation of 88 individuals from different locations. The positive feedback received from the participants reflects their satisfaction and the value they derived from the session. Participants expressed their gratitude for the opportunity to learn from Tanumoy Das and appreciated his expertise in guiding them through the yoga practices. The event successfully fulfilled its objective of promoting the benefits of yoga and inspiring individuals to incorporate it into their daily lives.

Problems encountered and resources required:

Despite the online format, technical issues such as internet connectivity problems or audio/video disruptions could have been encountered during the event. However, proactive measures were taken to ensure smooth communication and minimize disruptions. Adequate resources such as a stable internet connection, audiovisual equipment, and a suitable platform for hosting the online session were required to facilitate the event's success.

Conclusion:

The celebration of International Yoga Day on 21st June 2022 provided a platform for individuals to engage in yoga practices and learn from the expertise of Tanumoy Das, an acclaimed yoga practitioner. The online event witnessed active participation from 88 individuals, promoting the physical, mental, and spiritual benefits of yoga. The success of the event demonstrated the positive impact of yoga on overall well-being and highlighted the importance of incorporating it into our daily lives. International Yoga Day continues to inspire individuals worldwide to embrace the transformative power of yoga for a healthier and more balanced life.

The image displays three screenshots from a Zoom meeting, each showing a slide presentation and a grid of participants. The top screenshot shows a slide titled "Historical back ground of SD" with the following text: "The concept of sustainable development formed the basis of the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development held in Rio de Janeiro in 1992. Sustainable development was the solution to the problems of environmental degradation discussed by the Brundtland Commission in the 1987 report C...". The middle screenshot shows a slide titled "Economic System" with a bulleted list: "• Poverty eradication", "• Basic health service for all", "• Provision of clean drinking water", and "• Enhance the productivity of essential commodities". The bottom screenshot shows a slide titled "Even after the adoption of the SDGs, the Doomsday Clock was moved onward" with text: "The Doomsday Clock is a symbolic representation of the likelihood of a man-made global catastrophe ending the world. Maintained since 1947 by the members of the Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, its hands are moved closer to or further from midnight (signifying the end of the world) according to global events. On 26 January 2018, the hands were moved forward by 30 seconds to two minutes to midnight, the closest to midnight they have been since 1953. Although the world continues to strive toward the SDGs, the crisis continues, and this shows we must do more to work toward the SDGs." Each screenshot also shows a grid of participants with their names and profile pictures.
